Creative & Creator: Mahiette Tarrago

HELLO,

I'm Ahvian The Creative, and alongside me is Ahrya, my doggie and best friend. We invite you to explore our story and our unwavering dedication to supporting children's development in every possible way.

In this booklet, you'll find sections about the book series, educational items exclusively designed to ignite learning in children of every age, and related products that might inspire learning in any room, house, or school. Our story begins with a desire to share what we've learned on our adventures and travels with children, sparking creativity and cultural appreciation. This makes our series a perfect choice for both education and enjoyment. That's why we created the bilingual comprehensive book series, seamlessly blending elements of reading, writing, drawing, cutting, learning, and creating. What sets this series apart is its emphasis on meaningful parent-child engagement. With each page turn, children not only immerse themselves in captivating narratives but also actively participate in these activities, nurturing their creativity, all while having fun. Aligned with our mission, our products aim to stimulate problem-solving, critical thinking, and language development while refining fine motor skills, fostering a deeper connection, and immersing individuals in creativity. Among our offerings are finger puppets, designed to explore emotions, colors, careers, and stories. Our lottery (bingo) games incorporate Spanish and English cognates, supported by visual elements for effective practice. The Quiet & Busy books are crafted for interactive learning, featuring engaging activities for small children. These, along with our other products, nurture a lifelong love and passion for learning, instilling creativity in your loved ones forever.

Integrating our books and products into your family's routine or classroom sparks a lifelong passion for reading, language, art, and storytelling in your child. Let's together ignite their imagination, crafting enduring memories. Thank you for embarking on this creative journey with us. We eagerly anticipate sharing the joy of learning and exploration with you and your loved ones. Together, let's inspire boundless imagination, foster a love for learning, and create cherished memories.

Wishing you joy with every turned page, and cheers to the adventure ahead!
Best wishes,

Ahvian the Creative & Ahrya.
